Italian Theologian on Bishop Laise and Communion on the Tongue

Monsignor Nicola Bux occupies a unique and prominent position among Catholics concerned about the present crisis in the Church. As a longtime friend of Pope Benedict XVI, he wrote a letter in 2012 to Bishop Bernard Fellay and members of the Society of St. Pius X, wishing to persuade them to accept an agreement proposed to them by the Pope. And five years later the SSPX itself stated that “Monsignor Nicola Bux unexpectedly echoed the Society of Saint Pius X (SSPX)’s position on the widespread crisis of the faith within the Church.”

Although Msgr. Bux and the SSPX may not have yet reached an agreement on all doctrinal points relating to the present crisis, Msgr. Bux has recently provided leadership in an area where many Catholics concerned about the present crisis are of one mind, the irreverence brought about by Communion in the hand. To honor the late Bishop Juan Rodolfo Laise a year after his death, a prelate whom Msgr. Bux describes as the author of the first book defending the traditional practice of Communion on the tongue, he wrote a detailed analysis of the role that Bishop Laise played in exposing the inappropriateness and illegality of the practice of Communion in the hand, and added to Bishop Laise’s own analysis some more recently documented evidence showing how Episcopal Conferences throughout the world ignored papal norms, and how the Roman Curia itself came to bypass those papal regulations. We offer to our readers both English and Spanish translations of Msgr. Bux’s article:

Communion in the Hand: Disobedience Permitted

In Memoriam: Bishop Juan Rodolfo Laise on the First Anniversary of His Death

<http://www.pcpbooks.net/buxeng.html>

Comunión en la mano: una desobediencia permitida

In Memoriam SER Juan Rodolfo Laise en el primer aniversario de su muerte

<http://www.pcpbooks.net/buxesp.html>

Msgr. Bux is a Doctor in Eastern Ecclesiastical Sciences from the Pontifical Oriental Institute of Rome, and has been a consultant to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (2002-2013), to the Office of the Liturgical Celebrations of the Supreme Pontiff (2008-2013) of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments (2010-2018), and to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints (1998-2019).

In the final paragraph of his article, Msgr. Bux cites a letter that Bishop Laise wrote to Benedict XVI in October of 2005. We are posting Bishop Laise’s letter on our web site both in the Spanish and in an English translation:

Msgr. Bux mentions that Bishop Laise had a longstanding relationship with Benedict XVI when the latter was Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. Building on that relationship, Bishop Laise could write to him as the Holy Father with a recommendation, motivated by the gravity of the situation, which had arisen because of decades of ignoring the universal laws of the Church governing the reception of Holy Communion:

“I also consider that the Synod on the Eucharist should stop at an examination of conscience about the extension of the permission to give Communion in the hand to almost all the local Churches, which in 1969 had only been granted to some local Churches in Europe at the particular request of their Pastors.”

In a previous online article we cited Bishop Athanasius Schneider, who wrote a preface to Bishop Laise’s book. Bishop Schneider stated more recently that Paul VI had “approved” Communion in the hand. We explained that this approval was de facto rather than de jure, for reasons demonstrated in Bishop Laise’s book. For Paul VI did not want this practice to spread throughout the universal Church, and he established laws to prevent it. But what occurred is indicated in the title of Msgr. Bux’s article on Bishop Laise – a “Disobedience Permitted.” When his orders were openly disobeyed, Paul VI was reluctant to correct and discipline the offenders, and therefore the practice spread against his will. Then John Paul II suspended the granting of additional indulgences for a time, but his authority also was resisted. Finally, Benedict XVI acted against the practice of Communion in the hand through his personal example, by distributing Communion himself only on the tongue and kneeling. This occurred after Bishop Laise asked him to take action to halt the illicit practice, which shows that Bishop Laise’s request to Pope Benedict XVI was not in vain. (See ad, page 4.)

HOLY COMMUNION

Communion in the Hand: Documents & History

Some Reflections on Spiritual Communion and the State of Grace

By Bishop Juan Rodolfo Laise

With a Preface by Bishop Athanasius Schneider

From the Preface of Bishop Athanasius Schneider, September 15, 2014: "The Church in our times has the urgent need of courageous voices in defense of her greatest treasure, which is the mystery of the Eucharist. Often today there arise voices in defense of the many human and temporal needs, but rare are the voices that defend the Eucharistic Jesus. With his book Communion in the Hand His Excellency Most Rev. Juan Rodolfo Laise, Bishop Emeritus of San Luis (Argentina), has for several years raised his voice in defense of the Eucharistic Lord, showing with convincing argumentation the inconsistency of the modern practice of Communion in the hand from a historical, liturgical and pastoral perspective...I consider it an honor and joy to be able to present this book of the most worthy Bishop Juan Rodolfo Laise, "decus episcoporum Argentinae". I hope this prophetic voice... may enkindle readers with the same faith and the same love and contribute to the universal restoration of the more sacred and reverent manner of receiving the Lord's Body."

Pope Leo XIII and the Prayer to St. Michael

by Kevin J. Symonds

From the foreword of
Bishop Athanasius Schneider:

"In his book Pope Leo XIII and the Prayer to St. Michael Mr. Kevin Symonds presents a very careful and competent historical research about the origin and the circumstances of the publication of the prayer to St. Michael....Furthermore he gives also a rich spiritual reflection on the Divine truth about the Holy Angels, the fallen angels and the reality and necessity of the spiritual battle. Mr. Symonds' book is indeed very relevant for our times. May this book become widespread and raise to many Catholics—especially the clergy—a new awareness of the necessity to use the spiritual means which God and His Church have given us in order to fight against the infiltration and attacks of the evil spirits."

The Truth of Papal Claims

A Reply to "The Validity of Papal Claims" of F. Nutcombe Oxenham

by Cardinal Rafael Merry del Val

"Does Dr. Oxenham imagine that even today a Bishop might not expostulate with a Pope, who, in his judgment, might be acting in a way which was liable to mislead those under his own charge...? The hypothesis is quite conceivable, and in no way destroys or diminishes the supremacy of the Pope. And yet an individual Bishop does not occupy the exceptional position of S. Paul, a fellow-Apostle of the Prince of the Apostles. Even a humble nun, S. Catherine of Siena, expostulated with the reigning Pontiff, in her day, while fully acknowledging all his great prerogatives" [p. 74].

School of Darkness

by Bella V. Dodd

"There was not a hint that despite the propaganda of hate unleashed against Germany and Italy, communist representatives were meeting behind the scenes to do business with Italian and German fascists to whom they sold matériel and oil. There was not a hint that the Soviet brass was meeting with German brass to redraw the map of Europe. There was no betrayal of these facts until one day they met openly to sign a contract for a new map of Europe – a treaty made by Molotov and Von Ribbentrop" (page 87).

Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira: Prophet of the Reign of Mary

by Roberto de Mattei

From the Preface by

Bishop Athanasius Schneider:

“One cannot understand the public and social action of Professor Plinio unless one starts from his spiritual foundation. The consecration to Mary, lived in a total coherence, leads Mary to reign in the soul of her devotees. The reign of Mary in souls is therefore the beginning of the realization of the Kingdom of Christ in society. Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira has foretold an epoch of spiritual and visible radiance of the Church, which will correspond to the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary announced by Our Lady at Fatima in 1917, and it is for this triumph that he fought until his last breath.

“Those who reap the spiritual and cultural heritage of Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira, and Prof. De Mattei is part of this, participate in the same mission, that of leading souls to the light of Jesus and of Mary in the darkness of the contemporary world.

“By encouraging the reading and the diffusion of this book, I wish to make mine also the program which it transmits to us....”

BLESSED BE GOD

THIS IMMENSELY POPULAR CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK went through several editions between 1925 to 1961. We have reprinted it five times, the last two of which have been as close as possible to its original specifications. This edition of our reprint INCLUDES such hi-quality features as a bonded leather flex cover, rounded corners, sewn binding, gilded page edges, a marking ribbon.

This ALL-TIME CLASSIC prayer book comes with prayers and devotions CHERISHED BY GENERATIONS OF CATHOLICS! Along with the usual array of morning and evening prayers, litanies, novenas, et cetera, also included are more rare devotions for Holy Days, Special Feasts, Holy Week, Ember and Week Days, Seasons and Months of the Year, and more.

For EUCCHARISTIC DEVOTION, an entire collection of prayers exists including a Holy Hour and the famous Forty Hours' Adoration once practiced in every parish church!

This incredible POCKET-SIZE PRAYER BOOK also includes the Ordinary texts (in Latin and English), Sunday Epistles and Gospels (English only), Requiem and Nuptial Mass propers (in Latin and English) FOR THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and even Sunday Vespers and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Great for school children!

Half the price of a daily missal, many adults prefer the Blessed Be God as their missal. Decorated throughout with symbolic lithographs, the hi-quality scan of this book's text matches that of the original. We've even ensured that this reprint is current with the traditional Missale Romanum by inserting an updated Table of Moveable Feasts (good till 2041). 754 pages, 6 1/16" x 3 1/4" (spine thickness is just under 5/8") #55722. Yours for just $34.00

The Mass: A Study of the Roman Liturgy

by Father Adrian Fortescue

"Essentially the Missal of Pius V is the Gregorian Sacramentary; that again is formed from the Gelasian book, which depends on the Leonine collection. We find the prayers of our Canon in the treatise de Sacramentis and allusions to it in the IVth century. So our Mass goes back, without essential change, to the age when it was first developed out of the oldest liturgy of all. It is still redolent of that liturgy, of the days when Caesar ruled the world and thought he could stamp out the faith of Christ, when our fathers met together before dawn and sang a hymn to Christ as to a God. The final result of our inquiry is that, in spite of unsolved problems, in spite of later changes, there is not in Christendom another rite so venerable as ours."

The Liber Brevior

Originally published in 1954, the Liber Brevior (or shorter book) fills a need for those who don't need all the features of the large and more common Liber Usualis. Like the Liber Usualis, the Liber Brevior has all the ordinary parts and propers of the Sunday Masses, all the major feasts and most of the regular weekday feasts, but without the parts of the Liber Usualis pertaining to the Divine Office. This shorter book is ideal for small choirs, students and others interested only in singing Masses. With English rubrics. In this edition are added a supplement of six Masses not in the original printing, and a supplement to the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. At the end of the book are found simpler versions of the Graduals, Versicles of the Alleluia and Tracts, set to simplified Gregorian notation for those choirs not skilled enough to sing the regular melodies. Includes 2 ribbons, reinforced durable Latex end sheets, red edges, Bible paper, sewn hard back; pages: xxxiv, 640, [126], 22. $34.00 + P&H # 89031

Holy Week Gregorian Chant Book

Since the Liber Brevior was published before the 1956 Holy Week changes became official, we have printed a companion volume, the Liber Hebdomadae Sanctae, or the Holy Week Gregorian Chant Book, which has all the ceremonies of Holy Week, including Tenebrae: 1 ribbon, white edges, sewn hard back. 244 pages $16.00 + P&H # 55737

The Admirable Heart of Mary

by St. John Eudes

St. John Eudes reveals to his disciples how Our Lady's heart was the first-fruit of Her Divine Son's Passion, given to all of Mary's children, that it might be honored, cherished, invoked and, ultimately, with that of her Son, reproduced in them. This is the essence of St. John Eudes' spirituality which spilled over into the foundation of many religious congregations, literary works and, of course, the practice of heroic virtue. This doctrine is foundation for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and of Her Divine Son and is very pertinent for our time. 2006 381 pages, reprint of 1948 1st English ed. $18.00 #55625

Essay on Catholicism, Liberalism & Socialism: Considered in Their Fundamental Principles
Juan Donoso Cortés

translated by Madeleine Vincent Goddard / a sketch of the life & works of the author by G. E. de Castro / introduction by Frederick D. Wilhelmsen
2014 – xx & 236 pages – hardback – $16 – #63282

“I am come in the name of my Father, and you receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him you will receive” (Jn. 5:43). In these words our Lord announced the natural triumph of error over truth, of evil over good. They contain the secret of the universal forgetfulness of God, of the terrible propagation of pagan superstitions, and of the gloomy darkness prevailing over the world. They also foretell the spread of error among men, the tribulations of the Church, the persecutions of the just, the victories of the sophists, and the popularity of blasphemers. These words are a summary of history, with all its scandals, all its heresies, and all its revolutions. They also explain why the Jewish people, when called upon to choose between Barabbas and Jesus, condemned Jesus and liberated Barabbas; and why the world today, having the power of choice between Catholic theology and socialism, chooses socialism and rejects Catholicism; and why human discussions result in the denial of the evident and in the acceptance of the absurd [Book I, Chapter VI, “That our Lord Jesus Christ has triumphed over the world exclusively by supernatural means,” p. 40].

The liberal school, fearing at the same time both light and darkness . . . has undertaken to govern without a people and without God; an extravagant and impossible attempt. Its days are numbered, because we see God appearing at one point of the horizon, and at the other the people. On the terrible day of battle, when the entire field will be covered with Catholic and socialist combatants, no one will know where to find this school of liberalism. [Book II, Chapter VIII, “Solutions of the liberal school. . . ,” page 116].
