Bishop Mayer's January 1974 Letter to Pope Paul VI

"the best book on the new Mass"

—Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre

September 1977, Albano Laziale, Italy

Two Timely Issues

The New Mass

And the Possibility of a Heretical Pope

By Arnaldo Xavier da Silveira

2023 sewn hardcover 2023 – 365 pages $24

Pope Paul VI's action in September 1973 to prevent the publication of this book, as explained by José Antonio Ureta in the foreword to the present edition, prompted Bishop Antonio de Castro Mayer of Campos, Brazil to write to the Holy Father on January 25, 1974. Bishop Mayer in his letter referred to his previous October 15 communication with the Pope, in which he manifested his "filial compliance" with Paul VI's request. In this second letter, he cited the Holy Father's permission for him to "freely express to the Holy See" his opinions, if in conscience he did not agree with certain acts of Pope Paul's magisterium.

The promulgation of the new rite of the Mass, the novus ordo missae, intending to replace the traditional Latin rite, was one such act that deeply concerned Bishop Antonio de Castro Mayer. Therefore in his letter to the Pope he expressed his agreement with the contents of this book by Arnaldo Vidigal Xavier da Silveira. And he did so after appealing to the Holy Father for an understanding of his concerns. "I implore Your Holiness to have compassion toward the obedience of this Bishop, now seventy years old, who is currently experiencing the most dramatic episode of his life. And I ask Your Holiness to grant me at least a portion of that understanding and that benevolence which sewn hardcover 673 pages / dust jacket $28

Never before has all this wealth of intensely interesting and little known facts about St. Joseph been compiled into a single book. This can truly be called a "little Summa" of St. Joseph, as the only source existing in any language of the complete life, theology and devotional history of St. Joseph. Four previous books of Father Filas are the basis of the present Joseph: The Man Closest to Jesus.

Complete revision, expansion of all material that needed updating, and the re-issuance of earlier sections of permanent value make it possible to offer this full thesaurus of facts (sometimes published here for the first time in English) about St. Joseph.

The present book is composed of six units. The first analyzes the source material for our knowledge of St. Joseph; the second develops what we can know about St. Joseph's ancestry, his relationships to other biblical figures, his trade, and his age when he married Our Lady. The third unit is completely devoted to questions concerning his marriage, such as the question of its genuinity, and St. Joseph's doubt over Mary. In the fourth unit, we are presented with Father Filas' comprehensive survey of Joseph's fatherly relationship to Jesus. The fifth section takes up you have so often manifested not only around you, but also with people who are strangers, and even enemies of the one fold of the one Shepherd." Six paragraphs above in his letter, he had manifested his intention regarding those opinions that he was expressing to the Pope: "It is not my intention to hand them over to the public, certain that my reserve will please Your Holiness."

In the years immediately following these events, however, Paul VI did not respond favorably to the wishes of Bishop Mayer and those of all the faithful who wanted to preserve the traditional liturgy. In May of 1976, at a consistory of Cardinals, Paul VI criticized Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre for adhering to the traditional rite, and stated that he wanted every priest to celebrate the new rite. In 1984 his successor, Pope John Paul II, granted an indult, which was interpreted as an exception to the law, allowing the traditional Mass when permitted by the local bishop. But later a commission of Cardinals, set up by the same Pope to study the canonical status of the traditional rite, concluded in their majority that Paul VI had not in fact abolished the traditional rite, which in effect made an indult unnecessary because the rite had not been abrogated. Nevertheless, opposition to the traditional Mass continued, and in June of 1988 Archbishop Lefebvre, joined by Bishop Mayer, consecrated four bishops in order to assure that priests would continue to be ordained to celebrate the traditional rite.

For nineteen more years the controversy within the Church continued, until Benedict XVI officially declared in his motu proprio Summorum Pontificum of July 7, 2007 that the traditional rite was never abrogated. However, that declaration was challenged by the July 2021 motu proprio Traditionis Custodes of Pope Francis.

In view of this history of nearly five decades, manifested at first by Bishop Mayer's reserve in not going public to express his deep concerns, has given way, in the face of a worldwide effort to suppress the traditional rite, to the need to explain to Catholics throughout the world the reasons behind the public resistance to its suppression. The traditional rite must be preserved – as many Catholics firmly believe – because the new rite does not fully express the sacrifice of propiation that is realized in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Arnaldo Vidigal Xavier da Silveira demonstrates that there is no other possible explanation of the theology behind the new rite. For the explanations given, by those who were its most representative advocates, demonstrate a radically new understanding of the Mass, different from what the Church has always taught throughout the centuries.

topics of Joseph's dignity, holiness, supernatural privileges, patronage, and possible advancement in the liturgy. The concluding section surveys the complete history of the devotion to St. Joseph, from the earliest years of the Church to 1962, and quotes (with accompanying commentary) all modern papal pronouncements concerning St. Joseph. An appendix offers a new translation of all indulgenced and other new prayers honoring St. Joseph. Fully indexed for handy reference.

About the Author

Described by the Oratory Magazine of St. Joseph's Oratory, Montreal, as "one who has probably said more about St. Joseph than any other man in history," Father Francis L. Filas, S.J. was born in Cicero, Illinois, in 1915, entered the Society of Jesus at the age of 17, and was ordained in 1945. Later studies and teaching took him to the University of Detroit, where he pioneered in introducing the Cana Conference movement for the husbands and wives in the Detroit area. In 1950 he was stationed at Loyola University, Chicago, and in 1959 was the chairman of its department of theology. His interests in family life have appeared in lectures to parents' groups or as a member of the board of Cana Conferences conductors in the Archdiocese of Chicago. He spoke before more than 140,000 husbands and wives or couples preparing for marriage.

During the course of his Jesuit studies he became interested in the history of the devotion to St. Joseph, an interest that has led to the publication of six of his eight books, four pamphlets, and numerous articles about the Saint. He was also known to television viewers for his educational and religious telecasts, chief among which was the annual Good Friday "Shroud of Turin," which was presented regularly since 1951. Already seen nationally by 36,000,000 viewers, this was chosen by Time magazine as one of the outstanding telecasts of the Easter weekend. Time also called Father Filas "spark plug of the international campaign" to put St. Joseph's name in the Mass. Father Filas died on February 15, 1985.

The Mass: A Study of the Roman Liturgy

by Father Adrian Fortescue

"Essentially the Missal of Pius V is the Gregorian Sacramentary; that again is formed from the Gelasian book, which depends on the Leonine collection. We find the prayers of our Canon in the treatise de Sacramentis and allusions to it in the IVth century. So our Mass goes back, without essential change, to the age when it was first developed out of the oldest liturgy of all. It is still redolent of that liturgy, of the days when Caesar ruled the world and thought he could stamp out the faith of Christ, when our fathers met together before dawn and sang a hymn to Christ as to a God. The final result of our inquiry is that, in spite of unsolved problems, in spite of later changes, there is not in Christendom another rite so venerable as ours."

The Liber Brevior

Originally published in 1954, the Liber Brevior (or shorter book) fills a need for those who don't need all the features of the large and more common Liber Usualis. Like the Liber Usualis, the Liber Brevior has all the ordinary parts and propers of the Sunday Masses, all the major feasts and most of the regular weekday feasts, but without the parts of the Liber Usualis pertaining to the Divine Office. This shorter book is ideal for small choirs, students and others interested only in singing Masses. With English rubrics. In this edition are added a supplement of six Masses not in the original printing, and a supplement to the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. At the end of the book are found simpler versions of the Graduals, Versicles of the Alleluia and Tracts, set to simplified Gregorian notation for those choirs not skilled enough to sing the regular melodies. Includes 2 ribbons, reinforced

The Truth of Papal Claims

A Reply to "The Validity of Papal Claims" of F. Nutcombe Oxenham

by Cardinal Rafael Merry del Val

"Does Dr. Oxenham imagine that even today a Bishop might not expostulate with a Pope, who, in his judgment, might be acting in a way which was liable to mislead those under his own charge...?"

The hypothesis is quite conceivable, and in no way destroys or diminishes the supremacy of the Pope. And yet an individual Bishop does not occupy the exceptional position of S. Paul, a fellow-Apostle of the Prince of the Apostles. Even a humble nun, S. Catherine of Siena, expostulated with the reigning Pontiff, in her day, while fully acknowledging all his great prerogatives" [p. 74].

Pope Leo XIII and the Prayer to St. Michael

by Kevin J. Symonds

From the foreword of Bishop Athanasius Schneider:

"In his book Pope Leo XIII and the Prayer to St. Michael Mr. Kevin Symonds presents a very careful and competent historical research about the origin and the circumstances of the publication of the prayer to St. Michael....Furthermore he gives also a rich spiritual reflection on the Divine truth about the Holy Angels, the fallen angels and the reality and necessity of the spiritual battle.

Mr. Symonds' book is indeed very relevant for our times. May this book become widespread and raise to many Catholics—especially the clergy—a new awareness of the necessity to use the spiritual means which God and His Church have given us in order to fight against the infiltration and attacks of the evil spirits."

School of Darkness

by Bella V. Dodd

"There was not a hint that despite the propaganda of hate unleashed against Germany and Italy, communist representatives were meeting behind the scenes to do business with Italian and German fascists to whom they sold matériel and oil. There was not a hint that the Soviet brass was meeting with German brass to redraw the map of Europe. There was no betrayal of these facts until one day they met openly to sign a contract for a new map of Europe – a treaty made by Molotov and Von Ribbentrop" (page 87).

The Admirable Heart of Mary

by St. John Eudes

St. John Eudes reveals to his disciples how Our Lady's heart was the first-fruit of Her Divine Son's Passion, given to all of Mary's children, that it might be honored, cherished, invoked and, ultimately, with that of her Son, reproduced in them. This is the essence of St. John Eudes' spirituality which spilled over into the foundation of many religious congregations, literary works and, of course, the practice of heroic virtue. This doctrine is foundation for the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and of Her Divine Son and is very pertinent for our time. 2006 381 pages, reprint of 1948 1st English ed. $18.00 #55625

HOLY COMMUNION

Communion in the Hand: Documents & History

Some Reflections on Spiritual Communion and the State of Grace

By Bishop Juan Rodolfo Laise

With a Preface by Bishop Athanasius Schneider

From the Preface of Bishop Athanasius Schneider, September 15, 2014: "The Church in our times has the urgent need of courageous voices in defense of her greatest treasure, which is the mystery of the Eucharist. Often today there arise voices in defense of the many human and temporal needs, but rare are the voices that defend the Eucharistic Jesus. With his book Communion in the Hand His Excellency Most Rev. Juan Rodolfo Laise, Bishop Emeritus of San Luis (Argentina), has for several years raised his voice in defense of the Eucharistic Lord, showing with convincing argumentation the inconsistency of the modern practice of Communion in the hand from a historical, liturgical and pastoral perspective...I consider it an honor and joy to be able to present this book of the most worthy Bishop Juan Rodolfo Laise, "decus episcoporum Argentinae". I hope this prophetic voice... may enkindle readers with the same faith and the same love and contribute to the universal restoration of the more sacred and reverent manner of receiving the Lord's Body."

THIS IMMENSELY POPULAR CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK went through several editions between 1925 to 1961. We have reprinted it nine times, the last seven of which have been as close as possible to its original specifications. This edition of our reprint INCLUDES such hi-quality features as a bonded leather flex cover, rounded corners, sewn binding, a marking ribbon.

This ALL-TIME CLASSIC prayer book comes with prayers and devotions CHERISHED BY GENERATIONS OF CATHOLICS! Along with the usual array of morning and evening prayers, litanies, novenas, et cetera, also included are more rare devotions for Holy Days, Special Feasts, Holy Week, Ember and Week Days, Seasons and Months of the Year, and more.

For EUCCHARISTIC DEVOTION, an entire collection of prayers exists including a Holy Hour and the famous Forty Hours' Adoration once practiced in every parish church! This POCKET-SIZE PRAYER BOOK also includes the Ordinary texts (in Latin and English), Sunday Epistles and Gospels (English only), Requiem and Nuptial Mass propers (in Latin and English) FOR THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and even Sunday Vespers and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Great for school children!

Half the price of a daily missal, many adults prefer the Blessed Be God as their Sunday missal. Decorated throughout with symbolic lithographs, the hi-quality scan of this book's text matches that of the original. We've even ensured that this reprint is current with the traditional Missale Romanum by inserting an updated Table of Moveable Feasts (good till 2051). 754 pages, 6 1/16" x 3 1/4" (spine thickness is just under 5/8").

Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira: Prophet of the Reign of Mary

by Roberto de Mattei

From the Preface by Bishop Athanasius Schneider:

“One cannot understand the public and social action of Professor Plinio unless one starts from his spiritual foundation. The consecration to Mary, lived in a total coherence, leads Mary to reign in the soul of her devotees. The reign of Mary in souls is therefore the beginning of the realization of the Kingdom of Christ in society. Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira has foretold an epoch of spiritual and visible radiance of the Church, which will correspond to the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary announced by Our Lady at Fatima in 1917, and it is for this triumph that he fought until his last breath.

“Those who reap the spiritual and cultural heritage of Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira, and Prof. De Mattei are part of this, participate in the same mission, that of leading souls to the light of Jesus and of Mary in the darkness of the contemporary world.

“By encouraging the reading and the diffusion of this book, I wish to make mine also the program which it transmits to us....”
